

Joanne Newlund

Coach / Facilitator / Trainer

Joanne Newlund is a senior coach for Mission Facilitators International, an 18 year organizational development, training and executive coaching firm headquartered in the Phoenix area. Joanne's over the years has been described as:

- Cutting right to the truth
- Compassionate
- Goal oriented
- Purpose driven
- Engaging and fun
- A catalyst for breakthroughs
- Life changing.

Joanne has been trained, and has direct experience in, productivity and life coaching, communication assessments and tools, relationship building, leadership and team development and strategic planning. She has coached small business owners and leaders within large companies in Seattle and Phoenix.

Joanne has also managed and owned several small businesses and been involved in several professional associations. She lives with her family just outside of Phoenix.