

What Type Of Followers Do You Lead?

Isolators	Bystanders	Participants	Activists	Diehards
Know little about leader. Disinterested in company. Disappears into the crowd. Works to pay bills. Detached and lethargic. Incentives to engage don't work.	Aware but chooses not to engage. Passively goes along to serve self interest. Not motivated. Avoid the risk to be involved. Could be swayed by incentives to engage.	Engaged to make a difference. Willing to speak up. Supports the leader and organization. Intrinsically self-motivated	Strongly supports or doesn't support the leader and or organization. Eager and energetic. Puts in long hours. Often in the leaders' inner circle. High degree of initiative.	All consuming commitment either for or against leader and or organization. Often emerge in dire situations. Risk their own well being for their cause.

